

'WHAT IS THE CITY BUT THE PEOPLE?'

URBAN IDENTITIES BETWEEN THE CIVIC AND THE ETHNIC

ERTEGUN HOUSE, FRIDAY 11TH - 12TH MARCH 2016
(8TH WEEK)

This workshop is focused on the interplay between civic and ethnic identities – two forms of collective belonging usually seen as fundamentally different – and takes a comparative approach to their construction in urban contexts from Archaic Greece to the Ottoman Empire. The registration fee is £10, and coffee breaks, lunches, and a wine reception will be provided. In order to attend please RSVP to identity@TORCH.ox.ac.uk by Sunday the 6th of March. Speakers include:

Amira Bennison
(Cambridge)

*Berber Tribes and Arab Cities? Reflections on the Construction of Identity
in Medieval Fes*

Glenn Bowman (Canterbury)

*Inter-Communal Relations in Ottoman and
Post-Ottoman Urban Settings: Inquiries into the Social Contexts of
'Space Sharing'*

Mikhail Boytsov
(Moscow)

The City as a Female from Late Antiquity to the Late Middle Ages

Rachel Goshgarian
(Lafayette College)

*Inter-Faith Interactions
and Homosociality in Late Medieval Anatolian Cities*

Jonathan Hall (Chicago)
*Communities of Place and the Place of Community in the Early
Greek City*

Eliza Hartrich (Oxford)
Citizenship and Ethnicity in Late Medieval Ireland

Nicholas Matheou
(Oxford)

*From Ani to Bari: Urban
'Armenians' in the East and West of Medieval
New Rome*

Erin Maglaque (Oxford)
*Marrying the Wrong
Woman in Renaissance
Venice*

Oren Margolis (Oxford)
*The Gaulish Past of Milan and the French
Invasion of Italy*

Rosamond McKitterick
(Cambridge)
Roman Identities in the Early Middle Ages

Walter Pohl (Vienna)
Ethnic and Urban Identities between Antiquity and the Middle Ages: Some Theoretical Reflections

Miri Rubin (QMUL)
Methods and Approaches to Diversity in Cities

Len Scales (Durham)
*Communicating Identities
in Late Medieval German Towns*

Abbey Stockstill
(Harvard)
*A Mediterranean Form in
a Maghrebi Context:
Understanding Almohad
Marrakech*

Catherine Sykes
(Cambridge)
*Origin Myths and Urban Identities in the Chronicles of Medieval
Rus*

Peter Webb (SOAS)
TBA

The Long History of Identity, Ethnicity and Nationhood Research Network is convened by Ilya Afanasyev and Nicholas Matheou, and sponsored by the University of Oxford History Faculty and

